Client Update No. 44

6 December 2016

Service Evaluation

We would like to thank our valued clients for trusting and working with us this year once again. On our part, we will endeavour to continue doing our best to serve you better. It is with this desire in mind that we seek your input on evaluating our employees in terms of the quality of service they have rendered to you.

In this regard, we humbly ask you to nominate any of our employees that you believe has been giving you the best service since you started transacting with us and throughout the year.

Please send your nomination by replying to this email, and just stating the name of the employee. You are also free to give comments in support of your nomination.

We thank you in advance for your continued loyalty, support and participation.
